NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

COKE IS STILL QUIET.

No Sign of a Syndicate Yet and Production is On the Decrease.

A BAND OF BOLD BOY BURGLARS.

Only $9,000 Short.

ALL THE NEWS FROM NEAR-BY TOWNS

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CONNELLSVILLE, April 11. - The Courier's coke review will say to-morrow: The coke trade continues to fluctuate. Production and shipments still vary from week to week, but the general average is dropping slowly but steadily downward. Production for the past three months shows a steady decline. Shipments have fluctuated more, and the daily average for March is slightly in excess of that for February, though the production is vice versa.

There does not seem to be any assurance of an improvement in the situation before fall, if then. A wellknown operator expresses the opinion that there will be no improvement in the trade dur-ing the present year. The iron trade continues ing the present year. The iron trade continues flat and unprofitable and gives no promise of improvement this summer. In the East many furnaces are shutting down, but in the West the coke burning furnaces are most all in blast. There is a gradual and reluctant blowing out of the operators, whose orders keep their plants going only partially, and there is consequently a gradual increase in the number of idle ovens and idle men, bur better times for the balance of the ovens and the remaining men.

The lively cutting in prices has ceased for the present, but it is likely to break forth afresh the latter part of this month. It was stated in a Pittsburg paper the other day that a movement was afoot among the larger operators to reorganize the old syndicate, but the rumor proves to be without foundation, more's the pity. The operation of the 77 coke plants of the Connellsville region for the week ending on Saturday last, shows 11,280 of the 13,286 completed ovens in blast and 1,805 idle, against 11,457 active and 1,805 idle the previous week.

BAD BOY BURGLARS.

A Band That Has Been Rudely Disturbing a Quiet Community.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. PENFIELD, April 11.—For more than a year many citizens of this quiet community have been severely annoyed on account of many losses of warious articles of value, taken from their residences and stores. These robberies have usually been committed in the early part of the evening, and in all parts of town, showing conclusively that the perpetrators are an organized band who have been constantly on the alert for opportunities for blunder. Their mode of operations has been to watch closely, and when the members of the family are out, usually at church, they quietly enter the house and pick up what valuables they can get hold of and make their exit. In this way they have accumulated a considerable amount of money, jewelry, revolvers, razors, cartridges and numerous other articles of almost all kinds.

On last Sunday evening H. L. Avery's residence was entered while they were at church and several articles were taken, including Mrs. Avery's wedding ring. On Monday Dwight Avery, the oldest son, and another young man took upon themselves the role of amateur detectives and made an investigation, which resulted in the discovery of many of the stolen articles and the arrest of the 17-year old son of Mr. Hewitt, a prominent and wealthy citizen. of the evening, and in all parts of town, show-

The had stoutly denfed his guilt, but finally said that a year ago two men, one of whom he named and who is a property owner here, but recently moved to Canada, had called a lot of the boys together, ranging in ages from 15 to 15 years, had formed them into an organized band of robbers, and had exacted of them fearful oaths of secrecy. He would not expose the other members of the gang. Three more boys have been arrested and warrants issued for three or four more. The parties arrested were all promptly bailed by their friends.

the Proposed Prohibitory Amendment. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.

BEAVER FALLS, April 11 .- The closing hours of the Pittsburg Presbytery of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, held in this place, was consumed in discussing the question whether it was consistent with the articles of church discipline in that body of Christians to vote at the coming election on the adoption of the pro-hibition amendment to the Constitution.

The question was ably argued on both sides, and although a strong opposition was made against voting, yet when the vote was taken the majority were in favor of voting, and it was so recorded.

HE SPECULATED ON THE QUIET, And Now His Friends Are Mourning the Absence of About $15,000.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. Sr. Louis, April 11,-Thomas R. Reynolds, a prominent business man and lessee of the Sterling-Webster Abstract Company, has disappeared from the city. His son, Thomas J. Reynolds, said to-day:

Thomas J. Reynoids, said to-day:

The only explanation of my father's absence I can offer is financial embarrassment and possibly temporary insanity. The money he owes was loaned him by personal friends, and I believe that as he found he could not pay them that he could not bear to meet them. I do not know what he borrowed the money for, nor how it was lost. He had a very large family to keep up, and a very expensive family. He does not owe any bills so far as I can ascertain. The debts to his personal friends will, I think, amount to as much as $15,000. I do not know that he speculated. He never told us anything about his business, and not one of the family knew that he was at all embarrassed until after he was gone. His failure does not affect the Sterling-Webster_Abstract Company.
